

CROKER TO RESCUE.

Rushes Over Sea to Save Tammany.

His Aid Needed to Protect Party and Make Chief, "Be Good."

"Boss" Murphy So Hoggish That Democrats Are Afraid.

Budget of Hundred Eighty-five Millions a Year Is Prize.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It inevitably gives seat to a Tammany anti-Tammany campaign to have it made known that Richard Croker is on the seas bound for the port where not many years ago he abdicated a power that was a world-wide political wonder.

RETIRED "BOSS" TO CHASTISE SUCCESSOR.

Tammany Chief and His Predecessor.

who is hurrying from England to help Democrats of New York out of desperate straits. Upper sketch was made last year on Croker's arrival in New York.

Better than a mere guess is the assertion that Croker's return to the city of his former glory—the place where he "got it"—has a good deal to do with the municipal campaign that is to culminate in the election of November. Theoretically, Croker is out of American politics, and is an English county gentleman.

But now Mr. Croker instead of timing his visit so as to bring him in New York after a pending election, as he has done heretofore, thereby avoiding even the appearance of a personal interest in affairs, is coming just at the time when the campaign will be at its fiercest stage. That there is a motive in it few will be inclined to doubt. And the concrete motive, it is likely to be found, will be closely connected with big schemes of financial exploitation—traction interests, subways, new railroad terminals, contracts and all that underlies the big game in Tammany politics.

TO CONTROL BUDGET. "Tammany wants to control the budget, amounting to about $185,000,000, a year, and the letting of the contracts. But there are the financial groups themselves, and these groups having the means of making politicians rich, are jealous of one another. Some of the big interests always found "Boss" Croker "reasonable." Croker never wanted the whole thing for himself; he was not hoggish. A public service private could deal with the "Big Chief" and feel that there would be fairness on all sides.

Murphy, on the other hand, has not succeeded to Croker's reputation for a safe driver. He wants too much for himself. Recently Mr. Murphy assumed an interest in the Bradley-Gaffso is equally well known because he has "got a plenty"—that is, he does not feel the necessity of working hard and personally directing campaigns and all that in order to live like a gentleman. But perhaps he can scare Mr. Murphy into believing that he "welter be good" and not try to hog things or he suddenly will find himself out of a job as head of Tammany Hall.

NEED HIS ADVICE. There is a surmise also that Tammany leaders may need Croker's trained intellect as well as his fatherly advice, in fact, to prevent a snap-up all along the line. Although the betting odds are still 2 to 1 on Gaynor, there is not a great deal of money being wagered, and as the campaign progresses the prestige of the Tammany ticket is not being augmented to any noticeable extent.

Things are looking ripe for the most sensational attack on Tammany's protection of vice ever made in or out of a campaign in this city. The appearance of an article in McClure's magazine on the Tammany direction of the white-slave trade, which the daily papers reprint today, is only the harbinger of the real attack. The Evening Post takes occasion to announce, apropos of the McClure article, that its own story of the city's white-slave mart under Tammany's sway will be printed tomorrow and that incidentally light will be thrown on the Sullivan gang.

ERUPTIONS PREDICTED. Frank A. Perret, American Scientist in Messina, Foretold the Volcanic Action.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] MESSINA, Oct. 22.—Yesterday's earth shocks felt in the vicinity of Mount Etna coincide with the renewed activity of Mount Vesuvius and have caused much alarm here. The fact that such seismic disturbances had been predicted by Frank A. Perret, the American scientist, does not lessen the uneasiness.

Mr. Perret was in this city during the last week of September, and at that time pointed out that September 29 would be a date most favorable for earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, for the reason that at that time the sun, earth and moon would be in line, thus constituting a combination tending to produce a gravitational distortion of the earth's form. Mr. Perret added that if nothing out of the ordinary occurred, as proved to be the case, it would mean that the earth had resisted the unusual pressure, but that telluric convulsions would likely be experienced in the latter half of October.

VEVUVIUS SUBSIDING. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] NAPLES, Oct. 22.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius, which became alarmingly active yesterday, appears to be subsiding today. The villages in the vicinity of the volcano are filled with strangers.

Everybody who knows anything of the Tammany situation at all knows that Croker could ascend the throne again at any time he "was a mind to do so," that he doesn't want to do

LIQUOR DEALERS WILL DEFY TENNESSEE PROHIBITION LAW.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local retail dealers in so-called "soft drinks," as well as prohibitionists, are up in arms over the report that wholesale dealers strong drink who moved from Memphis when the State wide prohibition laws went on the statute books, have decided to return here as a base of operation.

This agreement is said to have been made by representative members of the organization which flourished here as the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association. They met today after weeks of deliberation and at a star-chamber conference are reported to have agreed unanimously on re-establishing offices and free delivery. Some claim their action is based on the opinion that retail soft-drink stands are selling liquor in the same old way without interference, and all agree that the new prohibition law is at soft-drink establishments.

COMPANY OFFICIAL JAILED.
BIG EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles H. Davies, former secretary and treasurer for the Western Consolidated Coal, Gas and Electric Company, with offices in the Metropolitan Bank building, was arrested today by a detective and charged at the City Prison with felony embezzlement. He is accused of having embezzled $100,000 from the company, the money being derived by the sale of the company's stocks and bonds to citizens of Sacramento county. Davies has not been connected with the company since the latter part of June, but the alleged shortage was discovered only a week ago. E. R. Healy, president of the company, yesterday filed a complaint charging embezzlement. In default of bail Davies was locked up this evening.
He declared there is no case against him and that his arrest is spite work.

CONFESSES POISONING PLOT.
St. Louis Woman Admits She Faked
Story Accusing Another,
Then Fainted.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Ninette
L. Lillard, who yesterday accused Mrs.
Maud Ridley of giving her poisoned candy, confessed to the police that she had bought the candy and put the poison in it herself. She did so, she said, to turn Mrs. Ridley against her husband. Mrs. Lillard, a newspaper reporter, followed her identification by the clerk who sold her the candy. As she admitted the poisoning plot was her own, Mrs. Lillard fainted. Mrs. Ridley, who said she loved Lillard, was released on bail. She was charged yesterday with attempted murder.
The motive of Lillard and her wife said
there would be no prosecution of Mrs.
Ridley. Mrs. Lillard in a signed statement, said she had forgiven Mrs. Ridley. Her motive is expressed in the statement, as follows:
"What I wanted—and all I wanted—
was to protect myself from what I believed, and still believe, was an imminent danger. I believe I have accomplished that object. There is nothing more for me to do."

HAVE CLEW TO MURDERER.
Kansas Authorities Believe "Friend of the Family" Slew Two Women
on Lonely Farm.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
KANSAAS CITY, Oct. 22.—A Coroner's inquest over the bodies of Anna V. and her sister, Mrs. Mary Ridley, who were murdered on a lonely
farm five miles west of Kansas City, Kan., on Wednesday, was begun today. The county authorities are working on a new theory that the Von Roeyen homestead showed no evidences of a hurried search by the murderer, though hubbub is known to have been committed.
The murderer is some one familiar with the premises, and some one acquainted with the family, and not a tramp," said Prosecuting Attorney Saggs today. From the nature of the wounds the murderer must have fired several shots into each body after it lay on the ground. This indicates to my mind that he was some one who feared he would be recognized and desired to make sure that all were done.

WHITE RIBBONS.
President Taft for TURNING WINE GLASS DOWN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
In proof of this statement, Mrs.
Stevens, a woman of numerous authorities and referred to statements by heads of thirty-nine of the leading railroad systems in response to letters sent them by the National W.C.
T.U. asking for their policy with regard to drinking men. All replies stated that there was an absolute prohibitive rule against liquor.
It is conservatively estimated,
therefore, the report stated, "that 90 per cent. of the railroads, 75 per cent.
of the manufacturers, 80 per cent. of the trades and 70 per cent. of agriculturists discriminate against workmen who drink."
Mrs. Stevens deplored the fact that many daily papers accept extensive advertising contracts from liquor dealers and carry a list of forty-two paragraphs that decline to accept this class of advertising. She said that one periodical from 100,000 liquor advertisements in one year. The report appealed to the various religious denominations to increase their zeal
for the cause of prohibition.
FOR FEDERAL COMMISSION.
The report strongly favored a Federal commission to investigate the liquor traffic, but admitted that it is not so greatly needed now as it was twenty years ago.
The annual reports of Mrs. Frances P. Parks of Illinois, corresponding secretary, and of Mrs. Elizabeth F.
Hutchinson of Illinois, treasurer, were read at the afternoon session.
The report of the treasurer showed an expenditure of $74,911 during the last year.
In an address on "Temperance and Labor," Mrs. W. Whitman of California, superintendent of the department of temperance and labor, declared that the movement for conservation of the natural resources had failed to measure up to the movement for the conservation of the highest well-being of the useful worker, to which the union is devoted.

Aged Woman Breaks
Fast Walking Record

And the Winner, Mrs. Jane Edwards Root, of 1605 E. 30th St., Cleveland, O., 80 Years Old, Whose Picture Appears in the Illustration,
Won the Race by Walking 2 1/4 Miles in 26
Minutes. Mrs. Root Attributes Her Vigor,
Health and Staying Powers to Duffy's Pure
Malt Whiskey, Which She Has Taken for Years.

In a recent interview Mrs. Root said: "I seldom take medicine, but two years ago at my home in Cleveland I felt not very strong, so bought one bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I was benefited by it.
I am 80 years old, and won the championship in the great walking contest for aged people in Cleveland. I came out winner of 28 contestants over 75 years of age (14 women and 14 men). I beat the world's record, and now hold the championship for the United States and Europe. I walked 2 1/4 miles in 26 minutes and was not at all tired; could have walked it right over again. One paper gave the account as two miles in 26 minutes; all the other papers were right. When I reached the end, not another walker was anywhere near me, and the enthusiasm was great. I have had an immense mail ever since from professors in colleges and prominent men all over, wishing to know how I lived, what my diet was, what caused this wonderful strength and endurance at 78 years of age. I take good care of my health, have camped out every summer for the past 25 years, live well, and use as my only medicine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I have known during the past two years several wonderful cures from Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is a remarkable medicine for Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. Two instances have come to my notice of permanent cures.
My wonderful health and ability to walk long distances I attribute to using it as a medicine."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey
If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong.

BLOOD POISON

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison.
Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of their strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smoldering in the system, have brought disappointment to thousands. The disease always returns after such treatment. S.S.S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison, making the circulation pure, rich and healthy, not does S.S.S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S.S.S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time specifically adapted to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your blood. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all.

STANFORD FIT FOR THE GAME.

Presley's Players Expect an Easy Victory.

Methodists to Meet Saints at Bovard Field.

Pomona and Occidental to Contest Also.

Twenty Stanford huskies worked out on the Occidental football field yesterday afternoon, in final preparation for the big Rugby game against the Castaways this afternoon.

The entire squad appeared to be in the pink of condition, impressing all spectators with the practice with their fitness for a hard contest. Most Stanford teams of late years have been noted for their fine physical condition, and "Dad" Moulton, the Varsity trainer, appears to have come up to all expectations with his 1909 Rugby squad.

Every superfluous ounce has been worked off the men without affecting their spirits or leaving them the least bit stale from overwork. They appear to be hard as nails, and unusually fast for so heavy a squad.

During the first few minutes of the work-out the men warmed up with kicking and handling punts. The squad seemed to average well about thirty kicks nearly every half-field man and several of the forwards booting the leather in long spirals that ran all the way from thirty-five to sixty yards.

After the warming up the men were divided into squads and the forwards given practice in dribbling, while the backfield practiced running and cross-passing. The scrub men divided into two bunches, and alternated in short, fast dribbling rushes back and forth across the field.

The men had fine control over the ball, carrying the leather with them over courses that included circles and figures-eight. In the backfield work there was a little fumbling, though the men showed excellent control, seeming both confident and tricky.

The practice ended with a few line-outs in which the entire squad took part, and a couple of passing rushes from regular scrum formation. Both the fitness of the men and their evident ability in handling the ball would seem to indicate that they will experience no serious difficulty in overcoming the lighter Castaways aggressiveness, when they meet them in the latter held the California Varsity to a tie three weeks ago.

For the Castaways has been recruited Manning, captain of the Polytechnic Institute. Manning's regular position is center, but he is well acquainted with the game, and though light, will be lined up in the Castaways scrum, in place of the regular center, who failed to show up. With Manning, Milford, Brunning, Sweet and possibly Davies, the Castaways have a strong list of substitutes.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock, with Pat Higgins blowing the whistle, the Castaways with Capt. Gedeon of Los Angeles High as touch judge.

Following is the expected line-up of the teams:

Stanford: Fitting front-rank: Griffin, Horton, Mitchell, Wolfson, Dole, Wolcott, Robinson, Crawford, rear-rank: Cale, Strathorn, Pemberton, half: Tom Higgins, Mow Mitchell, first five-eighths: Stan Mitchell, second five-eighths: Roth, centre three-quarters: Dills, Kern, wing three-quarters: Flores, Cook, wing three-quarters: Best, Brown, full-back: Pierce.

THREE COLLEGE GAMES. PLENTY OF CONTESTS ON.

Three football games, in addition to the Stanford-Castaways Rugby contest, all scheduled for this afternoon, insures a big day for gridiron enthusiasts. The intercollegiate games will be played on fields quite distant from each other, so the fans must make a choice of the crowd.

The most important southern contest is billed for Bovard Field, where the University of Southern California will tackle the fighting squad of St. Vincent's College at 2:30 o'clock. At Fiesta Park, a half hour later, the Law School of the University will play the Pomona club at 3 o'clock. The Orange Athletic Club at 3:30 o'clock.

Many fans think the Methodists are due to receive a beating at the hands of the Saints. The regulars of the Saints are beginning to wake up to the fact that they have a team working under difficulties on Bovard Field, and a pretty good contingent of rooters is expected to cheer the Varsity. Stoeckel was a mercurial thing for Capt. Dixon to stop the contest when he did.

The Athletics used the forward pass four times, making substantial gains twice, while Throp played scrum fifteen times, varying only with the delayed pass.

GREAT PLATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SANDOWN PARK, Oct. 22.—James R. Keene's unbeaten Colin has been taken out of training and sent to the stud at Newmarket, efforts having failed to bring back the great stallion to racing form.

The Great Sapping plate of 1000 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, was won today by Sun Angel, H. J. Whitley's Newcastle. It was second and Dunraven third.

For the Castaways has been recruited Manning, captain of the Polytechnic Institute. Stoeckel was a mercurial thing for Capt. Dixon to stop the contest when he did.

For the Castaways has been recruited Manning, captain of the Polytechnic Institute. Manning's regular position is center, but he is well acquainted with the game, and though light, will be lined up in the Castaways scrum, in place of the regular center, who failed to show up. With Manning, Milford, Brunning, Sweet and possibly Davies, the Castaways have a strong list of substitutes.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock, with Pat Higgins blowing the whistle, the Castaways with Capt. Gedeon of Los Angeles High as touch judge.

Following is the expected line-up of the teams:

Stanford: Fitting front-rank: Griffin, Horton, Mitchell, Wolfson, Dole, Wolcott, Robinson, Crawford, rear-rank: Cale, Strathorn, Pemberton, half: Tom Higgins, Mow Mitchell, first five-eighths: Stan Mitchell, second five-eighths: Roth, centre three-quarters: Dills, Kern, wing three-quarters: Flores, Cook, wing three-quarters: Best, Brown, full-back: Pierce.

THREE COLLEGE GAMES. PLENTY OF CONTESTS ON.

Three football games, in addition to the Stanford-Castaways Rugby contest, all scheduled for this afternoon, insures a big day for gridiron enthusiasts. The intercollegiate games will be played on fields quite distant from each other, so the fans must make a choice of the crowd.

The most important southern contest is billed for Bovard Field, where the University of Southern California will tackle the fighting squad of St. Vincent's College at 2:30 o'clock. At Fiesta Park, a half hour later, the Law School of the University will play the Pomona club at 3 o'clock. The Orange Athletic Club at 3:30 o'clock.

Many fans think the Methodists are due to receive a beating at the hands of the Saints. The regulars of the Saints are beginning to wake up to the fact that they have a team working under difficulties on Bovard Field, and a pretty good contingent of rooters is expected to cheer the Varsity. Stoeckel was a mercurial thing for Capt. Dixon to stop the contest when he did.

has signed up for goes. I don't know what it is, but it goes."
"The division of the purse has been that to us. That leaves only three points to settle."

"First, the selection of a stake-

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

An interesting entertainment was given at the Morocco-Egan dramatic school last evening, in the room of the school on the eighth floor of the Morocco-Egan dramatic school building. This was the first presentation of pupils under the direction of the school. The audience was large—so large, in fact, that it spilled out into the hallways—and the programme, especially the children's part of it, was especially interesting.

A pretty little play, "The Piper's Son," was given with a cast including Laurence Lawrence, Ruby Miller, Macbel Wineman, Beale Small, Marian Ayres, Lucretia Del Valle and Gladys Myers. Miss Del Valle especially distinguished herself.

Olivia Walters, in a song, "Ory Baby," assisted by a children's chorus, scored a hit.

Jerome K. Jerome's "Sunset," a delightful comedy, was most effectively given by the Misses Maude Hanaford, Gladys Myers and Marie Ayres, and Messrs. F. O. Adler, Clarence Voligt and Leo Peterson. Rehearsals on this work were very brief.

Harry Girard sang several songs and won as many encores. Florence Wadsworth, an excellent dramatic soprano, was heard in an aria from "Madame Butterfly" and Dotti's "Mattiata."

There's a situation in "The Traveling Salesman" company, which comes to the Morocco next week, that is as interesting as it is unusual—two prominent members of the second generation of the stage playing in one company. And the plot is thickened considerably by the fact that the preceding generation is still on the boards. Mark Smith and James O'Neill, Jr., have the distinction of trying to live up to the reputations which their parents are still preserving faithfully.

The first named, who takes the principal role in this play, is the son of the Mark Smith who was once a member of the famous Boston Museum company. The elder Smith was last seen at the Chicago Opera-house in "Pachelbel's Torte" as James O'Neill, Jr., is, of course, the son of that other James O'Neill, always easily recalled with "Monte Cristo."

Perhaps the nearest resemblance to such a situation has been on such occasions as when Miss Eleanor Robson and her mother, Mrs. Carr Robson, have played in stellar roles within a few weeks of each other. John Drew, too, was followed soon by his daughter, Louisa Drew, in the supporting cast of Miss Billie Burke. Then, again, two years ago, when Mrs. Patrick Campbell was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Stella Campbell.

The Corbines played the Ferris Hartman at the Morocco yesterday afternoon. Score, 13 to 4, favor of the Hartmans. Jay Barnes says there were 100 girls present from the two organizations. That's twice as many as there are in both companies.

Caroline, in "Miss Mielich," will conclude her Auditorium engagement this afternoon. The evening performance will be omitted.

It has been extensively announced that Florence Roberts would play "Mrs. Dalloway" for the Roberts this year. Miss Roberts and "Mrs. Dalloway" seem income, at least, however, as Miss Jessie Bonetelle will be seen in the part. Miss Roberts' piece is indefinite.

Oliver Morocco returned to Los Angeles yesterday from San Francisco, where he went a few days ago to see the Portola celebration.

There was recently sent from Charles Frohman's office to the newspapers of the country in general, an article under Mr. Frohman's signature, entitled, "The Invasion of the French."

Now, as far as I know, the only New York managers who on occasion do their own literary work are Harrison Grey Fiske and David Belasco. But neither Mr. Frohman actually "took pen in hand" for this, or whether it issued from the speech of a reporter of the "New York Times," or whether it was written by the great producer, or if it contains any remarkable passages, and illustrates many of the vital points of Frohman's great success, as well as being a large piece of ammunition against those who say that Mr. Frohman expatriates himself by continually decrying American genius.

The following excerpt certainly contains food for thought:

"In what you might call the domestic drama, the French have excelled in the last quarter century, because their playwrights have shown superior power in the four great principles of playwriting: observation—the knack of setting upon the characteristic traits and recognizing the dramatic significance; selection—narrowing down these details to what is most representative exposition—the swift, clear laying out of the groundwork of the play; and development—the fulfillment of that exposition by letting the characters logically and humanly live out the traits assumed for them in the exposition."

"The typical French domestic drama is fascinating from the point of view of workmanship. Its chief virtue is economy. It sounds great depths by the masterly manipulation of few characters. (Just here we might say that no French dramatist has ever succeeded better in this respect than our own Eugene O'Neill.) French playwrights often think that a great play must, therefore, have only few characters. They think that they are great plays because they have only few characters; when the real fact is that they have few characters because they are great plays. The intensity of the concise, compactly-built domestic drama of France can be seen on all sides in America. We are more and more coming to have plays that have few characters, because they are great—that is, compactly built and concise."

thought. The French stage sends more to America than the American stage sends to France, but last season the two most popular plays on the French stage were "Sherlock Holmes" and "Raffles," neither of them the product of French playwrights.

"One respect in which French or any kind of European-made play will always remain inferior to a rightly-written American play is in the chief virtue of the foreign-made play when on its own soil. The very technical perfection of a play written for an older civilization, which is pretty sure to be a thinking public, robs it of the warmth and humanness that will secure its place before a younger civilization, which is pretty sure to be a feeling public. A well built American play touches the mind through the heart. The perfect French or European play touches the heart through the mind. They think about life in Europe; we feel it in America."

—just as an old man reflects upon life, while a youth lives it. The wise American playwright is the one who takes the dramatic material that is true to American life and clothes it with as much of France's Europe's excellence in technique as will not rob that material of one iota of its strength. Technical excellence of French playwriting combined with the great emotional or optimistic strength in American play-writing would seem to be a perfect combination. The more French plays, even in translation, that America sees, the more rapidly we shall attain such a balance.

All of which, while boosting Mr. Frohman's particular line of importing business very prettily, contains a good many meaty kernels of truth.

Are You Acquainted With Our Making to Order Department?

It has two great advantages which you would certainly appreciate—and other ones which you would like to discover. The first is that every garment made here possesses STYLE; the second, that every garment has our guarantee. Your suit is directly designed FOR YOU, by our own representative, who has visited the fashion centers of the East; it is not simply copied from a fashion plate.

The location is another advantage—right off the Dress Goods Department, with the materials and designers, the tailors all there on the same floor and right near together, under the supervision of Dress Goods Manager. The air of the place will please you; it is quiet, businesslike, accommodating.

Special Suit Offers Made Under Our Guarantee

Your selection from serges, chevrons, broadcloths, venetians, and mannish effects; an especial showing of chevron weaves in wide, medium or narrow wale, in one or two-tone effects, and the latest hopsackings in full color lines. Goods at $1.75 to $3.00 yd. For $45.00 and up.

ACTS xxi. 13-21. "Paul's Release."

THE CONNECTION.
As we saw, Felix kept Paul in prison for two years, with the hope that the people of his sect would pay him a ransom for his release of their leader. When he went out of office, he knew Paul was innocent, he let him in prison to gain favor with the Jews, for Felix had been impressed at Rome and recovered from his ambition. But he wanted to use the Jews in his ambition.

His successor, Porcius Festus, a wise man, soon made a visit to the Jews, and he was with Paul. Festus had not lost their eager thirst for his blood. Their request to have him brought back to Jerusalem was completely denied, and they were invited to come down to Caesarea to prefer charges against him. Festus soon followed Paul down, and in his presence reiterated former charges of treason, hereby threatening Paul's life.

Herod could see it was a case of life and death, and he was determined to get on a good footing with the Jews, and knowing their opinion, he opened the question of his return to their city for trial. Now, the first time he was with Paul, he had not reached the conclusion that he could not get justice done this side of Jerusalem, and knowing that God was leading him to Rome, he was determined to appeal to the emperor.

But he had one more chance to reach before he went. Herod Agrippa, King of Chalcis, came to visit Paul. He was great grandson of Herod the Great, and of Bernice, his own sister.
